Member Updates/ Upcoming events	Angelia: working with 17 women volunteers within the community from Douglas County that are participating in the Screen Grant and they are holding, on average, one event every weekend. They are getting the message out about early screening. They talk to women and give presentations, i.e., they have ladies night out, health fairs, bazaars, booths at farmers markets, attend church groups and book clubs, etc. They look for wherever there are groups of women. Lilya: Is looking into planning a Health Fair to offer women free clinical breast exams by doctors who have volunteered their time. She is looking for information about the Mamm Mobile Van for women. She is also looking at hosting additional vendors at the health fair that offers various screening, blood pressure, etc., She needs to find providers nursing students, etc., that will donate the materials, staff time, etc. She will send Kathy the date. Gretchen: ACS "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" Walk is on May 11th at PDX raceway. On March 14th at the MAC (Multnomah Athletic Club): ACS is hosting a breakfast. Jan: Komen's Breast Cancer Issues Conference is March 8 & 9, 2013 at the PDX convention center. March 8 is an update for medical providers that offers CEUs; Saturday's session is open to the public.
