

Shigellosis

February 2014 Surveillance Summary

The following graphs show monthly incidence for 2013 and 2014, and 10-year monthly average. All data are provisional.

2 cases of shigellosis were reported in February, for an incidence of 0.05/100,000, which is 60% lower than the 10-year monthly average (0.13/100,000)

Of the 5 cases reported in 2014, 4 are females (0.20 /100,000), and 1 is male (0.05/ 100,000).

Shigellosis by species,
Oregon, January - February 2014
N = 5

