
Congenital Syphilis in Oregon, 2005-2016

HIV/STD/TB SECTION
Public Health Division

Reported Congenital Syphilis Cases, Oregon, 2005-2016

Summary & Recommendations

- Syphilis cases in women have doubled in Oregon every year since 2011
- Congenital syphilis was uncommon in Oregon before 2014. In 2015, we had 6 reported cases and we have 5 reported cases so far in 2016.

How often should pregnant women be screened?

- Once at the first prenatal visit
- Beginning of third trimester
- At delivery