

2016 Reproductive Health Coordinators' Meeting PRESENTER PROFILES

Agenda Item	Speaker
Oregon Board of Pharmacy – Community Health Clinic Licensure	Fiona Karbowicz, Pharmacist Consultant with the Oregon Board of Pharmacy. Fiona has over 15 years of experience as a retail pharmacist in chain and independent pharmacies. She began work with the Board of Pharmacy in March 2011 as an Inspector/Investigator and has worked as the Board's Pharmacist Consultant since early 2014. Fiona is the Board of Pharmacy Preceptor for students doing their Final Year Elective Rotations and oversees their projects and site visits, teaches the monthly PIC Training course, and collaborates with staff and members of various regulatory agencies to solve compliance issues. She has prepared and presented Technician and Pharmacist training courses as well as Law Review courses for Continuing Education credits and works to promote the profession of pharmacy through participation in various professional organizations.
ScreenWise Service Expansion	Kristin Kane, ScreenWise Program Manager with the OHA Public Health Division. Kristin Kane, MSW is the manager for the ScreenWise Program at the Oregon Health Authority. Kristin has a passion for finding ways to better serve patients by creating better programming, reducing burden for service providers and expanding access for those that need it. Before coming to the Oregon Health Authority, Kristin worked on the social determinants of health as Director of Housing and Support Services at Cascade AIDS Project.
Health Equity from a Social Justice Framework	Zeenia Junkeer, Director of Equity and Community Engagement, Oregon Foundation for Reproductive Health. Dr. Zeenia Junkeer is social justice focused, primary care Naturopathic Physician working with the Oregon Foundation for Reproductive Health as the Director of Equity and Community Engagement. Her work internationally with individuals and families has been focused on sustainable community led strategies that are empowering and rooted in shifting the culture of health, to include an emphasis on the social determinants of health and education, while working to address the root cause of dis-ease. Identifying systemic barriers, dismantling oppressive practices and shifting cultural norms around reproductive health are key ways in which Dr. Junkeer fights for reproductive justice for communities who face the greatest inequities.

2016 Reproductive Health Coordinators' Meeting
PRESENTER PROFILES

Health Equity from a Social Justice Framework, cont.	Tashia Harris, Racial Justice Program Director, Western States Center. Tashia Harris joined Western States Center in 2016 as Racial Justice Program Director. They bring years of experience in training, community facilitation, and mentoring work while in leadership at George Mason University's Women and Gender Studies Department. Tashia's focus on equity, inclusion, assessment and sustainability is rooted in the value of long term vision and that our movement needs to pace our work for the long haul to be successful. Tashia also served in a faculty capacity with courses in Women and Gender Studies, with a focus on using an intersectional lens for policy analysis and developing strong media critique. They hold a M.A. in Urban Affairs from Norfolk State University and a B.S. in Interpersonal and Public Communication from Mississippi College. Tashia comes from Montgomery, Alabama.
---	---