

Emergency Medical Technician - Paramedic:

A person must be certified at least at the Oregon EMT-Basic level before being eligible to enroll in an EMT-Intermediate or EMT-Paramedic course and apply for and take any certification examination. Oregon EMT-Paramedic education is provided through the use of the EMT-Paramedic National Standard Curriculum, U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 1999-Edition, as amended and supplemented by the Division.

The following requirements must be met, according to OAR 333-265-0014:

"The emphasis of a paramedic course must be the competence of the graduate and not just or only the number of hours of education received. In order to obtain and demonstrate the necessary competencies, it may require a student to receive approximately 1000 to 1200 hours of:

- Didactic instruction
- Skills laboratory
- Clinical education, hospital clinical areas as prescribed by the Division, during which skills as required by the Division are performed under a preceptor
- Field internship represents final evaluative phase of the paramedic program. The student must actively participate in providing care in at least 40 ambulance calls; no less than ten each in cardiac, respiratory, general medical, and trauma emergencies, during which clinical skills as required by the Division are performed under a preceptor
- The student must successfully demonstrate a skill in classroom lab or hospital clinical setting before that skill is performed and evaluated in a field internship."

For an EMT-Paramedic applicant submit proof that the applicant has received an associate's degree or higher from an accredited institution of higher learning the student must successfully complete all mid-course and final examinations and final practical examinations.
