

Public Health Week in Oregon

April 2-18, 2012

Featured Event

This year's activities featured a spotlight presentation: Improving the Public's Health: The Role of Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs). A panel discussion with the state's leading experts on CCOs was held April 4th at the Portland State Office Building in Portland, OR. The presentation was broadcast via conference call and webinar.

Other Public Health Week Activities

Youth Photo Contest: The Way I See It: A Healthier Oregon Begins Today."

- Open to Oregon youth aged 12-18

National Events: Since 1995, the American Public Health Association (APHA) has organized National Public Health Week and developed campaigns to educate the public, policy-makers and public health professionals about issues important to improving the public's health.

Statewide Events: The Oregon Public Health Association hosts a statewide calendar of events for Oregon Public Health Week.